

English Grammar Practice Worksheet

Topic: Practical Usage of Present Tense Verbs (am / is / are) — Indian Context

EXERCISE 1: COMPLETE THE EVERYDAY CONVERSATIONS

Fill in the blanks using am, is, are, or their negative/short forms ('m not, isn't, aren't).

- Rohan: Namaste! I _____ Rohan from Delhi. What _____ your name?
Ananya: Hello! I _____ Ananya. Nice to meet you.
- Teacher: _____ all the students present in the classroom today?
Monitor: No, Rahul _____ here today. He _____ unwell.
- Pooja: It _____ very hot outside in Jaipur today!
Suresh: Yes, it _____ 42°C. I _____ really thirsty.
- Amit: _____ these fresh Alphonso mangoes from Maharashtra?
Vendor: Yes, they _____! They _____ very sweet.

EXERCISE 2: FACT CORRECTION (NEGATIVE STATEMENTS)

Correct the false statements using negative forms (isn't / aren't / am not) and state the true facts.

Example: Mumbai is the capital of India. → Mumbai isn't the capital of India. New Delhi is the capital.

- The Taj Mahal is in Mumbai.
→ _____
- Peacocks are reptiles.
→ _____
- Diwali and Eid are celebrated in winter only.
→ _____
- Cricket is played with a shuttlecock.
→ _____

EXERCISE 3: PRACTICAL SITUATIONS

Choose the correct phrase (That's, There's, Here's, or It's) to complete each situation.

- You hand the conductor your auto-rickshaw fare.
You say: "_____ fifty rupees, Bhaiya."
- Your friend helps you carry heavy bags up the stairs.
You say: "Thank you so much, _____ very kind of you!"
- You notice your train arriving on Platform 2.
You say: "Look! _____ the Rajdhani Express."
- Someone asks about the weather during monsoon season in Mumbai.
You say: "_____ raining heavily outside."

EXERCISE 4: PERSONAL APPLICATION & PROFILE WRITING

Write 4 original sentences about a family member or friend using am, is, or are.

- (Name & Relationship): My _____
- (Profession / Role): He/She _____
- (Interests): He/She interested in _____
- (Location): We _____